

EXPATISE ASIA CONVENTION: “EMPLOYING STAFF IN AND FROM ASIA”

Lia Alizia was one of the speakers at the Expatise Asia Convention: “Employing staff in and from Asia” on 18 November 2014 in WTC Amsterdam, the Netherlands. Lia will provide a lesson in one of the master classes on Asia, featuring Indonesia. She will present a webinar on Changes to the Indonesian Manpower Law affecting employer’s decision making in dealing with potential employment disputes. The event is organized by The Expatise Centre, a non-profit centre specialized in employment matters established by the Dutch Expat Foundation. The centre is dedicated to all main players from various industries to improve quality and efficiency in international labour mobility through collaborative networks.
