

Go Wild

Members of the M&T team visited The Wildlife Rescue Centre Jogja (WRCJ) a park in Yogyakarta, Indonesia where wildlife is rescued and rehabilitated before being released into the wild. It is also a sanctuary for animals that for various reasons cannot be released back into their natural habitat. The trip was a mind opening experience and M&T members ended up adopting animals such as orangutans, gibbons, raptors, etc.