

Makarim & Taira S. 42nd Anniversary

We are extremely proud to mark a significant milestone today, October 6th, 2022, as we celebrate our 42nd anniversary.

Us getting here is no accident - it has taken hard work, perseverance, learning, studying and sacrifice, and most of all, our commitment to serve.

To all our clients, partners and members of the M&T family, thank you for your continued commitment to M&T. We hope we will be able to keep sharing celebrations of our anniversaries with you in all the years to come.

Here's to celebrating another great anniversary.
