

Makarim & Taira S. Wins In-House Community Firm of the Year Award 2018

The Asian-mena Counsel has just announced the In-House Community Firms of the Year 2018, and we are proud to have been recognized as Firm of the Year for our Restructuring and Insolvency practice. We have also been given an Honourable Mention recognition for International Arbitration.

In 2018, over 2,000 in-house lawyers and buyers of legal services in 14 jurisdictions were surveyed as to which firms had served them best across a range of practice areas and which have been the most responsive to their needs. The recognitions are based on the participants' responses on the quality and value of service they received from external counsel in their jurisdiction and, which firms they prefer to use for various activities.

The In-House Community is comprised of more than 20,000 individual member in-house lawyers and those with a responsibility for legal and compliance issues in the Asia-mena region.
